JESSICA HEIN

A message from the Executive Director

I stated in last year's APHA Annual Report letter to you that I have witnessed a renewed spirit among APHA members, staff and American Paint Horse owners in general.

As we reflect on last year's accomplishments as one of the largest and most popular horse breed organizations in the world, I feel that we owe our success to that spirit of commitment to APHA and its mission.

That mission calls on us to fulfill four main promises to:

- maintain a safe and accurate American Paint Horse registry,
- oversee matters related to breeding and exhibition of Paint Horses,
- increase the value of Paint Horses and enrich people's experiences with them, and
- preserve and maintain the rich history of this breed and the association.

With the cooperation of our 100,000 members around the world and a dedicated staff, we did those things last year and will continue to work hard at them for the future.

Specifically in 2006, we launched a new on-line service to aid in more in-depth research and organization of our vast database, which now includes nearly 900,000 registered American Paint Horses. Registration and related services remain at the core of our mission.

Additionally, when it comes to the second part of our mission, involving shows, we are proud to have hosted 1,278 approved events this year. We hosted a successful ranch horse competition, spotlighting the practical skills of many talented horses in our registry. We also took a gamble on Paint Vegas and it paid off with big paybacks and exciting slot competition that we plan to continue. At Paint Vegas, APHA paid out $543,750 in cash, which included $255,250 in added money in the Open and Non-Pro classes and $288,500 in slot classes. Read more about Paint Vegas in this year's Annual Report. And, our World Show continued to be a big draw, attracting owners of more than 1,700 horses in 2006.

When it comes to the third part of our mission, to increase the value of Paints and enrich people's experiences with their horses, the association was successful in those areas as well. Our Breeders Trust program continued to set new payout records and our Paint Horse sale during World Show hit some exciting new highs. For those intangible values, such as helping people establish strong bonds with their horses, we're proud to report that Ride America® continues to grow stronger every year, now with more than 5,600 people enrolled in the saddle-log program.

And finally, the association is proud of its American Paint Horse Foundation, which continues to do new and great things to benefit our future by building on past successes.

You can read all about these ventures and more in this year's Annual Report. We take great pride in reporting our breed and association news. I encourage you to read our Paint Horse Journal, APHA Connection magazine, Paint Racing News and Generation j youth magazine. And check out our news on-line through our APHA e-newsletters, press releases and extensive Web site.

With your help in advancing our remarkable breed, I am confident the news will just keep getting better.

Sincerely,

Lex Smurthwaite,
APHA Executive Director

A message from the President

This correspondence finds me in the middle of my one-year term as president of the American Paint Horse Association.

I am happy to report that we are making significant progress throughout our association. This Annual Report outlines our many successful programs, people and horses that are part of APHA.

I am also proud to say that we are moving forward with initiatives I discussed when I took on the role as president of this great organization.

One of those initiatives was to chart the future of APHA through strategic planning. Having worked in agriculture and business all my life, I know the importance of short- and long-range planning. I am a firm believer in charting a course for the future and then following that map toward continued success. Progressive business models are built with this planning in mind and it is my goal to do the same with APHA.

An important first step to business planning is gathering information. That is why in March of 2007 we are launching a comprehensive online membership survey. In the four years since we last surveyed our membership, much has changed about our world and our economy. Gathering up-to-date and relevant data about our members, through a new survey, is essential for our future planning. It also provides us with the tools we need to make the best use of our time and resources.

The survey will be conducted this spring, and we plan to present our findings later in the summer. I encourage all APHA members to take part in the survey, which will be hosted online through our Web site at apha.com. The survey will help us understand our membership and, ultimately, will be a catalyst for maintaining and increasing our membership numbers. If you'd like to join the association and help us plot our future, this is an exciting time to sign on and make your voice heard. Visit apha.com for details.

I look forward to working with you to continue the success of our association and the American Paint Horse breed. It will require hard work to carry this association through the fluctuations in our global economy. I am extremely optimistic about our future, because I know we have a solid group of dedicated members and a talented staff working hard every day. And last but not least, I know we have an outstanding breed of horse that can carry us forward.

Sincerely,

Richard Cox
President, APHA

2006: A year of firsts and continued success

The American Paint Horse Association (APHA) saw record-breaking accomplishments and significant developments during 2006.

One of those breakthrough developments was the creation and launch early in the year of a new subscription-based on-line database, My APHA Plus, which tracks and organizes a multitude of equine-related activities and allows members to perform more in-depth research about Paint Horses. Details about the database are available at aphaonline.com.

The association continued its work to sponsor the largest Paint Horse Show on earth with its annual World Championship Paint Horse Show. This premier APHA event, which spotlights some of the best horses in the world, included a total of 1,738 horses. More than 4,500 entries were logged for the summer show, which took place for 14 exciting days at the Will Rogers Memorial Center in Fort Worth, Texas.

The popular Youth World Games returned at the 2006 World Show, and included teams of young Paint enthusiasts from the six countries. Team Canada repeated its win of the inaugural Games two years ago, while silver was awarded to Team U.S.A., and bronze to Team Germany.

Also at the World Show, Floyd and Maryann Moore of 6-J Paint Horses in Huntsville, Texas, generously donated a filly for the third consecutive year to the American Junior Paint Horse Association's (AjPHA) fund-raiser benefiting Youth scholarships. Ticket donations raised a record $23,283—more than double the previous year's figure.

For the first time, the World Show's Colors of the West Trade and Gift Show offered a daily array of family activities including horseback rides, training clinics, educational seminars and entertainment in the new Colors of the West Arena.

The association's show circuit in 2006 also included Working Ranch Horse competition (formerly named "Paint Ranch Horse Roundup"), which was held in Decatur, Texas. The event, which saw double the entries from the previous year, celebrated its third anniversary with the addition of a clinic and versatility class practice.

APHA shows continued right through the end of the year with Paint Vegas, held at the South Point Casino and Equestrian Center in Las Vegas, Nevada. The show logged 380 horses and 593 entries, and paid out more than a half million dollars in cash. Non-traditional classes, such as the popular "slot" classes, which were reserved well in advance of the show, with exhibitors and horses named later, were popular features of the Paint Vegas show.

"This was an excellent opportunity for us to explore ideas like the slot classes, which APHA plans to continue in the future," said Trigg Rentfro, APHA director of performance, racing, and international relations. "People had fun at this show and at the other events APHA hosted this year. That is important to us as an association, and we plan to continue to do the things that draw more exhibitors and spectators to our shows."

In all, APHA approved 1,278 shows around the world in 2006.

Outside the APHA arena and at the racetrack, Paint Horses also performed exceptionally well. One horse in particular was Got Country Grip. The 3-year-old bay solid Paint gelding shattered three Paint world records and ended the year with an unbeaten lifetime record. Owned by Jimmy Maddux of Weatherford, Texas, Got Country Grip was less than 2 tenths of a second off the 350-yard world record for any breed and 68 hundredths of a second off the 400-yard mark.

Got Country Grip and another Paint gelding, 4-year-old Calista Corona, raised the bar for lifetime race earnings during 2006, ending the year with more than $200,000 each. This achievement also made Calista Corona the new lifetime record-earning Paint racehorse.

Other Paints also experienced success in 2006 through APHA's Breeders Trust incentive, which awarded more than $1 million to enrollees, with an increase of more than $28,000 over 2005. These funds are based on a point-value system, with each point being worth a specific amount of money. Yearly dividends are paid to stallion owners, foal nominators and recorded owners of horses enrolled in the program.

Zippos Sensation, owned by Simons Show Horses of Aubrey, Texas, was awarded the Number 1 Stallion designation. Eighty-five of his foals earned a total of $88,941.94. Dunthat Benthere, owned by Amanda Ringer of Grand Island, Fla., was the Number 1 Horse by money earned, winning $20,167.32.

During 2006, APHA addressed important industry matters that would direct future breeding and showing practices. At the APHA Annual Convention and Membership Meeting in San Antonio, Texas, topics such as the subject of registering cloned horses were discussed. In the end, equines produced by the technique were excluded from eligibility.

APHA also hosted a judging seminar at its headquarters in Fort Worth, Texas, as well as an intercollegiate judging contest in 2006. Seventeen new APHA-approved judges joined APHA's roster during the year.

The association experienced success with the growth of the AjPHA, which increased membership totals to more than 7,200. This was the first year since its inception in 1974 that the Youth program has reported numbers higher than 7,000.

Throughout the year, APHA continued building relationships with and recognized several organizations that had significant impact promoting Paints in 2006, including the National Cowboys of Color Museum and Hall of Fame, Disney's Tri-Circle-D Ranch, Six Flags Over Texas and the ABC television show "Extreme Makeover: Home Edition."

Jim Austin, founder of the National Cowboys of Color Museum and Hall of Fame, proclaimed the American Paint Horse the official horse of the organization at a special ceremony at its Fort Worth-based museum.

At another special ceremony, APHA President Carl Parker and World Show Manager Butch Carse presented the Tri-Circle-D Ranch at Walt Disney World's Fort Wilderness Resort and Campground a special Legendary Achievement Award plaque for 35 years of introducing Paint Horses to park visitors through daily trail rides.

Six Flags and APHA extended their relationship with an encore sixth season of the live action Rangers & Outlaws Wild West Show. Brought back by popular demand, the show featured nine Paint Horses exclusively.

APHA also donated a sorrel overo mare, Clasic Queen, to the White family of Dewey, Oklahoma, who were featured on a 2-hour special of "Extreme Makeover: Home Edition." The mare helped fulfill the White children's dream of owning a horse again.

"We are proud of the accomplishments made by our members and the outstanding horses that are a part of our remarkable breed," said APHA Executive Director Lex Smurthwaite. "It took a lot of hard work and effort on the part of members and their horses, as well as our staff, to accomplish these many successful activities in 2006.

"What drives this success is the firm belief that we represent and support the best breed in the world — the American Paint Horse. With the help of all of our members and staff, I look forward to continuing to advance the American Paint Horse and to build on our success for the future." ■

Distinguished Service Award

American Paint Horse Association bestows highest membership honor on Indiana woman

Pauli Crull of Monticello, Indiana, a long time American Paint Horse Association Director, received the 2006 Distinguished Service Award, the association's highest honor. This award recognized individuals for their contribution to the association and the horse industry.

Crull earned the special award for her longtime dedication to the association. An avid equine enthusiast, Crull has made significant accomplishments to APHA during the 29 years she has served on its board of directors. The Indiana woman has also served as the chairperson for the association's show and contest and amateur committees.

Crull first got involved with Paint Horses when she was asked to exhibit a friend's Paint Horse in a show. She liked the people and Paint Horses so much after that initial horse show that she decided to work on buying her own Paint Horse. She attended the Paint Horse Congress in Hutchison, Kansas, in 1971 and purchased her first Paint Horse, Hojo; a decision she has never regretted.

"Hojo turned out to be able to do everything," said Crull. "I started going to every show I could ... I'd travel to several different states—just me, my horse and my dachshund."

Crull has always been a strong proponent of the APHA Amateur program. The Amateur program offers Paint Horse enthusiasts the opportunity to compete and show their horses owned by family members against their peers, without having to show against professionals. Over the years, due to Crull's tireless work, the APHA Amateur program has grown to become one of the most popular programs within APHA.

Currently, Crull is focusing her time towards her regional club, the Indiana Paint Horse Club, and Zone 8. Zone 8 encompasses regional clubs within Michigan, Indiana, Ohio and Kentucky.

"Over the years I've noticed that the success of anything starts from the bottom up," said Crull. "If you can't help the people in your state coordinate things, you won't accomplish anything."

Crull is most thankful to the APHA for providing her with the opportunity to serve and meet so many different people, including her husband, Kenny. She and Kenny met at the 1977 APHA Convention in Hollywood, Florida, in March and were married that August. Over the years they have developed a strong breeding program, sending successful horses out into the show pen. Their world champion stallion, Ollie Norfleet, continues to be a leading APHA sire, and the Crulls are recognized as some of the top breeders in the nation.

Her latest venture has been obtaining her APHA judging credentials. She has been judging for five years and enjoys traveling to different horse shows throughout the nation. After being an exhibitor since the late 1960s, Crull realizes the importance of the judging responsibility.

"It's neat to find something new to do within something that you have been doing all your life," said Crull. ■

Paint Vegas

Paint Horse exhibitors who were willing to take a chance on the American Paint Horse Association's (APHA's) new show in Las Vegas in early December came up winners in "Paint Vegas" competition that paid out more than a half million dollars in cash.

Champions at the inaugural Paint Vegas Horse Show brought something extra special back to their homes this year—an exclusive Paint Horse trophy as unique as the competitors it honored. This one-of-a-kind award, designed by renowned artist Marrita McMillian, was given to champions of all classes held during the show.

Although the Las Vegas Convention and Visitors Authority likes to promote the slogan "What happens in Vegas stays in Vegas," the show was the talk of the town for Paint Vegas competitors who hailed from 27 U.S. states, the District of Columbia, Germany and Canada.

APHA logged 300 horses and 593 paid entries for its newest show, held December 5–10 at the South Point Casino and Equestrian Center in Las Vegas, Nevada.

California led in the number of horses entered with 123, followed by Texas with 54 and Arizona with 27.

Over the six-day show, APHA paid out $543,750 in cash, which included $255,250 in added money in the Open and Non-Pro classes and $288,500 in slot classes.

While the association sanctions more than 1,250 shows around the world annually, the World Championship Paint Horse Show in Fort Worth, Texas, has been the major APHA-sponsored showcase where Paints vie for high honors. And, while the World Show will continue to be the association's premier annual event, APHA expanded its prestigious show circuit about 1,200 miles west last December, opting to award big cash payouts in Las Vegas, in lieu of points and world titles.

Paint Vegas classes included barrel racing, cutting, halter, hunter under saddle, reining, roping, trail, Western pleasure, Western riding, working cow horse, working hunter and yearling longe line.

Many classes were also dual-approved with a number of performance organizations, including the National Reined Cow Horse Association and the National Reining Horse Association.

Breeders Trust, an incentive program for Paint Horse owners, exhibitors, racers and breeders, will pay out a record $1,072,142. This was the fourth consecutive year the program paid out more than $1 million—with an increase of more than $28,000 over the previous record amount, set in 2005.

Breeders Trust incentive funds are based on a point value system, with each point being worth a specific amount of money. The 2006 value was $14.72 per point. Yearly dividends are paid to subscribed stallion owners, foal nominators and recorded owners of horses enrolled in the program.

In the Breeders Trust program, the stallion subscriber receives 20 percent of the dividend, the foal nominator 10 percent, and the foal's recorded owner on December 31 of the showing year receives 70 percent.

The Number One horse by money earned for 2006 is Dunthat Benthere, a 1996 red dun overo gelding by Tommys Reflection out of Impressive Ash Bar AQHA owned by Amanda Ringer of Grand Island, Florida. The first-time Breeders Trust leading money-earner received the distinction by collecting 1,370 points throughout 2006, and ended the year with $20,167.32 in incentive money.

For the sixth consecutive year, the stallion that sired the most money-earning Breeders Trust foals was Zippos Sensation, a 1993 sorrel overo stallion owned by Simons Show Horses, LLC of Aubrey, Texas. Eighty-five of his foals earned a total of $88,941.94 during 2006. ■

APHA Gelding Plus and Paint Preferred incentive programs

The APHA Gelding Plus and Paint Preferred incentive programs were a huge success for 2006. Between the two programs, over $80,000 was awarded to talented Paint horses at affiliate shows. Highlighted below are several of the incentive winners from the final quarter of 2006.

My Colors Magic, owned by Katelyn Gaughan, of Las Vegas, Nevada was awarded $5,000 for being the Gelding Plus Open division winner at the National Cutting Horse Association (NCHA) Futurity. Just months before the event, My Colors Magic was diagnosed with Equine protozoal myeloencephalitis (EPM). After extensive treatments, My Colors Magic was cleared to compete.

The APHA Gelding Plus winner in the Non-Pro division of the NCHA Futurity was Dynomighty Million. The 2003 solid Paint-bred gelding is owned by Barbara Brooks, wife of the country legend Kix Brooks of Brooks & Dunn. Brooks was awarded $5,000 for her accomplishment while riding Dynomighty Million.

The Great Guntini won Paint Preferred incentive money, in the amount of $2,500 by placing in the top three at the National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) Futurity's Open division. The 2003 sorrel overo stallion is owned by John Faulkner of Dade City, Florida

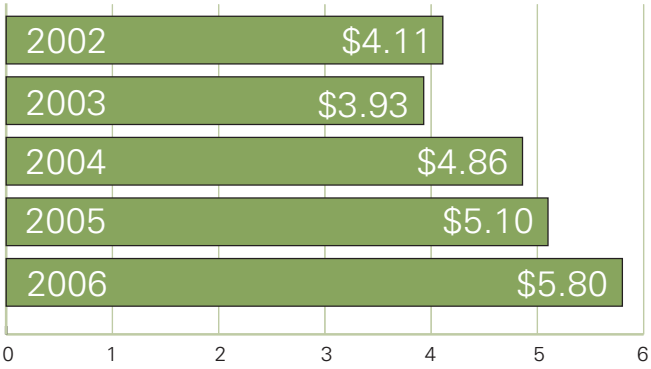
Purse money in millions



The 2006 Paint racing season marked a year of record-breaking growth with more than 600 starters competing in a record high 826 APHA-recognized races. Purse payouts totaled more than $5.8 million for 2006 in 15 states and Canada.

GENE WILSON & ASSOCIATES

Also in 2006, Got Country Grip repeated his titles earned as a 2-year-old the previous year becoming the 3-Year-Old Solid Paint-Bred Gelding, Solid Paint-Bred Champion and Solid Paint-Bred World Champion. The gelding, owned by Jimmy Maddux of Weatherford, Texas, continued his remarkable running career setting several new records while remaining undefeated in 12 lifetime races.

The bay solid Paint-bred gelding became one of only two horses to exceed the $200,000 lifetime earnings mark with winnings totaling $201,800. Calista Corona, owned by Charles Trochta of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma and Sammy Hester of Tulsa, Oklahoma, also surpassed the $200,000 mark in 2006, and set a new record of $213,694 in lifetime earnings. The 4-year-old solid Paint-bred gelding also earned the titles of Solid Paint-Bred Aged Gelding and Solid Paint-Bred Aged Champion.

Another first for racing in 2006 came at the Masterpiece Derby at Los Alamitos Race Course. Texas Exit, Katie Oneal and Decash all tied for first place, making history as the first ever Paint Horse triple dead heat winners. The three horses posted a time of 17.90 seconds in the 350-yard race, and each earned $10,875 for the win.

On another high note for the Paint racing industry, in June 2006, the Graham Paint Futurity paid out the largest purse in Paint racing history—$255,919—at Remington Park in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. ■

AjPHA continues to build tomorrow's leaders

BETSY FRANCIS

AjPHA leaders met in San Antonio, Texas, in 2006 to discuss future activities. Membership in the club has passed the 7,200 mark.

American Junior Paint Horse Association (AjPHA) members kept a demanding schedule in 2006, as they sharpened their leadership skills and participated in valuable community service projects.

Throughout Carson Underwood's 2005-2006 presidential term, Junior members from across the United States took part in several outreach activities, including the Presidential Service Project. These activities clearly demonstrate Junior members' compassion and caring attitude toward their fellow equine enthusiasts.

Carson's Presidential Service Project "Riding for a Reason," encouraged regional clubs to organize fun shows, educational clinics and trail rides in their areas to involve young horse-lovers who were not AjPHA members, but who might wish to become members after experiencing some of the fun to be found in "j" activities. The Presidential Service Project allows various opportunities to expand knowledge and leadership skills, while building lifelong friendships with other youth with similar interests and backgrounds.

The AjPHA regional club that exhibits the most dedication, effort and caring attitude toward the project is awarded the From the Heart Award, a $500 cash award sponsored by Markel Insurance. In 2006, the award was presented to the Utah Junior Paint Horse Club and its members at the 2006 World Championship Paint Horse Show.

The Youth portion of the 2006 World Show also featured the second Paint World Games in which young Paint enthusiasts from six teams—United States, Canada, Germany, Sweden, Australia and France—competed in four divisions. Those divisions included trail, showmanship, horsemanship and reining. Team Canada repeated its win of the inaugural Games two years ago, taking home the gold medal with a total of 38 points. Silver was awarded to Team U.S.A., which earned 33 points, and bronze went to Team Germany, with 32 points.

Another great learning opportunity for Junior members in 2006 was the annual Youth Leadership Conference, held in San Antonio, Texas, in conjunction with the APHA National Convention. AjPHA members travel from across the nation to attend this conference each year, where they participate in several activities that foster positive leadership, teamwork, sportsmanship, clean living and a positive attitude.

With more than 7,200 members and 38 regional clubs, AjPHA experienced significant growth during 2006. Not only will AjPHA work to continue this positive trend, but it is also committed to producing America's finest youth that are strong in moral character and active in their communities and regional clubs.

American Paint Horse Foundation

AMERICAN PAINT HORSE
Foundation

A message from the Foundation President

It is my pleasure to serve as the first president of the American Paint Horse Foundation and to be a part of the development this young organization has undergone during its inaugural year. Everyone involved with shaping the framework of the Foundation is excited about how much has been accomplished since its inception in January 2006 and the direction we are headed in the future.

For example, 2006 saw not only the launch of the Foundation and subsequent naming of both a board of directors and officers, but much more. With the help of these dedicated people, the new Foundation worked to live up to its promise of offering unique educational, historical and charitable opportunities to the public.

The Foundation continues to move forward with charitable projects already in place, such as discounted trainer services sales, reduced-rate breedings to champion reining sire, Boomernic AQHA, a drawing for a Paint filly and the exclusive Legacy of Color bronze series. In addition to these projects, the Foundation has initiated several new ventures since its formation.

One of the initiatives that debuted in 2006 was the New Holland Donate & Draw program, which was a joint effort with APHA's newest corporate sponsor and the official tractor provider of the association, New Holland. This fund-raiser continues into 2007, and offers the public the chance to support a great cause by entering a limited-offer contest for a tractor and front-end loader.

The Foundation also introduced a cookbook this year with the help of sponsor Diamond 2B Show Horses of Sanger, Texas. Filled with almost 300 recipes gathered from Paint Horse enthusiasts, the cookbook is available through APHA's General Store. Proceeds from the sale of the cookbook benefit the Youth scholarship fund.

Another development in 2006 was the unveiling of a revamped Foundation Web site, aphfoundation.org, which reflects the latest updates about the organization. For details about any of the projects mentioned above or other upcoming opportunities, I encourage you to visit the Web site.

Of course, all of 2006 can't be captured in a single letter. So, please read on to the rest of the Foundation's Annual Report for further information about our first year and the generous people who helped make it happen.

Sincerely,

Cheryl Newman
APHF President

Notes to Financial Statements

For the Years Ended December 31, 2005 and 2004

1. Organization and summary of significant accounting policies

Organization

The American Paint Horse Association, Inc. (The Association) is a not-for-profit membership organization incorporated under the laws of Texas and exempt from income tax under Section 501(c)(5) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code. The Association was formed in 1962 to collect, record, and preserve the pedigree of Paint Horses. In addition, the Association is responsible for promoting and disseminating knowledge and information related to the Paint Horse breed.

Basis of Accounting and Revenue Recognition

The accounts are maintained and the financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Membership dues and subscription fee revenues are recognized over the applicable membership or subscription period. All other revenue is recognized in the period in which the services are provided. Breeders Trust support is recognized as a temporarily restricted net asset and will be released from restrictions in the applicable distribution years. (See Note 2, Breeders Trust Program)

Cash

For purposes of these financial statements, the Association considers cash to be all cash on hand, cash in banks in demand accounts, cash in investment brokerage money market accounts, as well as amounts deposited in U.S. Treasury backed money market accounts. Cash, restricted, is cash deposited specifically for the Breeders Trust program.

Investments

The Association carries investments in marketable securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities at their fair values in the statement of financial position. Unrealized gains and losses are included in the change in net assets in the accompanying statement of activities.

Inventory

APHA General Store Collection inventory is carried at the lower cost or market determined by first-in, first-out method. Merchandise write-downs to market of all items determined to be slow moving or obsolete are reflected on the statements of activities under cost of merchandise sold. The write-downs for the years ending December 31, 2006 and 2005 were $ 40,779 and $ 26,834 respectively.

Property, Equipment, Depreciation and Collections

Property and equipment is stated at cost. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets, which range from 3-30 years. The Association possesses various prints, original paintings and bronze sculptures purchased and carried at their cost or received as unrestricted gifts and carried at their estimated fair value. These works of art are on display and were not purchased or received for the purpose of re-sale. (See Note 5, Property and Equipment.)

Federal Income Tax

The Association is an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(5) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code. Income earned from the performance of its Internal Revenue Service exempt purpose is not subject to federal income tax. Income in excess of $1,000 earned from its non-exempt purpose, (unrelated business income), would be taxable at normal U.S. corporate tax rates. The Association earned no taxable income from unrelated business activities for the years ending December 31, 2006 and 2005.

Basis of Presentation

Financial statement presentation follows Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 117. The Association reports information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted, temporarily restricted, and permanently restricted net assets. The Association has no permanently restricted net assets.

Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Association to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash in reputable financial institutions located in Fort Worth, Texas. Cash exceeding federally insured limits at December 31, 2006 total $ 1,440,093.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

2. Breeders Trust Program

The Association provides an added incentive for Paint Horse owners who exhibit their horses. The Breeders Trust is a program that will pay cash awards for points earned at Association approved events by nominated horses. The Breeders Trust is accounted for as a restricted program and as such is reported in the Association's financial statements as temporarily restricted net assets due to the nature of the program. Breeders Trust award payouts for 2006 and 2005 were $ 1,072,142 and $ 1,044,017, respectively. (See Note 3 Investments for Breeders Trust investment information.)

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Board of Directors
American Paint Horse Foundation
Fort Worth, Texas

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial position of the American Paint Horse Foundation (a non-profit Texas corporation) as of December 31, 2006, and the related statements of activities, net assets, and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Foundation's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the American Paint Horse Foundation as of December 31, 2006, and the changes in net assets and cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The December 31, 2005 financial statements were reviewed by us and our report thereon, dated February 24, 2006, stated we were not aware of any material modifications that should be made to those statements for them to be in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. However, a review is substantially less in scope than an audit and does not provide a basis for the expression of an opinion on the financial statements taken as a whole

For the Years Ended December 31, 2006 and 2005

1. Organization and summary of significant accounting policies

Organization

On December 31, 2005, the Boards of the American Paint Horse Heritage Foundation and the American Paint Horse Association Youth Development Foundation merged the two organizations to better achieve their mutual goals. The new organization will be known as the American Paint Horse Foundation (Foundation). It was chartered as a non-profit corporation in the state of Texas and is exempt under U.S. Internal Revenue Service Revenue Code 501(c)(3) as a charitable publicly supported organization under 509(a)(1).

The Foundation is organized for the purpose to reward and educate young horsemen and women and to preserve the history of the breed's accomplishments and artifacts associated with the outstanding bloodlines of the breed and individuals and institutions who contributed to these accomplishments. The merger was accounted for as a pooling of interest under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis of Presentation

Financial statement presentation follows Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 117, Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Organizations. The Foundation is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted net assets; temporarily restricted net assets; and permanently restricted net assets. Contributions received are recorded as unrestricted, temporarily restricted or permanently restricted support depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor restrictions. The financial statements of the Foundation have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting and, accordingly, reflect all significant receivables, payables, and other liabilities.

Cash

For purposes of the Statements of Cash Flows, the Foundation considers cash to be amounts in demand accounts and money market accounts.

Investments

The Foundation carries its investments in debt securities and common stock equities at their fair values in the statement of financial position. Unrealized gains and losses are included in net assets in the accompanying statement of activities.

Federal Income Tax

The Foundation is an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code. Revenue earned from its Internal Revenue Service exempt purposes is not subject to federal income tax. The Foundation qualifies for the charitable contribution deduction under Section 170(b)(1)(A) and has been classified as an organization that is not a private foundation under Section 509(a)(1). In 2006 and 2005, the Foundation had no unrelated earnings over the statutory $1000 exclusion.

Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Foundation to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash in reputable financial institutions located in Fort Worth, Texas. Occasionally, cash deposits are in excess of the $100,000 Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation protection.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.
