

Internship Announcement

Position: American Paint Horse Association Graphic Designer Internship

Available: January - May 2013 (Specific dates may be modified to fit the interns needs)

Immediate Supervisor: Art Vasquez, Creative Director

Introduction: The American Paint Horse Association, a breed registry located in Fort Worth, Texas, offers a fall graphic design internship each year for a college junior or senior or recent graduate to experience being an employee in an equestrian association and magazine environment.

Responsibilities: The Intern will work in the Graphics Department and will also have the opportunity to work with individuals in other departments. The intern will assist with designing signs and other materials for the World Shows, magazine, brochures, advertisements, etc.

Basic Requirements: A junior or senior (recent graduate considered) majoring in graphic design. Experience in the horse industry is a plus.

Duration of Internship: This internship is from January - May 2013. However, these dates can be modified to fit the intern's needs.

Housing and Transportation: The intern is responsible for transportation, room and board. The APHA office is located in Northeast Fort Worth. There is no public transportation available.

Salary: $1,200 per month

To Apply: Submit resume with references and cover letter as well as at least three design samples. Send all applications for review to APHA, Human Resource Dept., P.O. Box 961023, Fort Worth, TX 76161-0023 or fax to 817-222-6419. Resumes will be accepted through September 30th, 2012.

About: The Association performs the function of registration, record keeping, show management, sale scheduling, field services, racing coordination, publishing, public relations, information dissemination and administration. In addition, the Association fulfills its purpose of promoting the American Paint Horse through efficient service to members, directors and the general public.