

Internship Announcement

Position: Performance Department

Available: January – May 2013

Immediate Supervisor: Holly Slaughter, Senior Director of Shows

Introduction: The American Paint Horse Association is a breed registry located in Fort Worth, Texas. The Association performs the function of registration, record keeping, show management, field services, racing coordination, publishing, public relations, information dissemination and administration. In addition, the Association fulfills its purpose of promoting the American Paint Horse through efficient service to members, directors and the general public.

The Performance Department was created to organize and develop different programs for the association to meet the needs of its members' wide array of interests and ages.

Responsibilities: The Intern will work primarily in the Performance Department and will also have the opportunity to work with individuals in marketing, media and Paint Horse Journal. The intern will assist staff and show management with various duties related to the Performance Department and the World Shows including, but not limited to:

- Projects related to the Youth Program, Amateur Program, Shows and Judging
- Year-end award preparation and distribution
- Intercollegiate judging contest coordination
- World Show preparations

Basic Requirements: Seeking individual majoring in Animal Science, Equine Science, Agribusiness or related field who desires to learn more about breed associations and develop skills to work within the horse industry.

Recommended Fields of Study: Animal or Equine Science preferred or any related major.

Duration of Internship: This internship will be from January to April. However, these dates may be modified to fit the intern's schedule.

Salary: $1,200 per month

To Apply: Submit resume with cover letter stating why the student wants an internship with the APHA. Send all applications for review to APHA, Human Resource Dept., P.O. Box 961023, Fort Worth, TX 76161-0023 or fax to 817-222-6419. Resumes will be accepted until September 30, 2012.

Housing and Transportation: The intern is responsible for transportation, room and board. The APHA office is located in Northeast Fort Worth and there is no public transportation. The Intern must provide their own transportation.